OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken [illegible]
Arise and defend it [illegible] of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner [illegible]

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 22 1862

Coercion—What it has Done!

The victories by the Federal arms have made some of the secessionists of Oregon wilt. Gen Miller, who at one time declared that "he could not be induced to bear arms against Jeff Davis' Government," is now not only willing to fight rebellion but to pay taxes to sustain the Government in putting down this rebellion.

What has the Advertiser to say to this? Is it willing to eat its own words of treason and opposition to these declarations which have been uttered time out of mind by that paper? Will it say of Gen Miller as it said of Union men who rejoiced at Federal victories, that 'he is worse than a traitor!'

We have no confidence in these death bed conversions. Miller has ascertained to some extent, public opinion—he has found that a majority of the people of Oregon are not hostile to our own Government, and he has manifestly wilted under the fact.

A Truth Well Understood.—There are but two parties in Oregon—Union and disunion. The Union party sustains the Government in its efforts to crush out rebellion. The disunion party is hostile to the Government and against its measures of government to put down the rebellion.

In the estimation of the Union party those men who have rushed to support the Government, poured out their blood and given their lives to sustain it, are patriots, and deserve well of their country.

In the estimation of the disunion party in Oregon, of which the Advertiser is the acknowledged organ, "THEY ARE WORSE THAN TRAITORS."

Reader, which of these parties has your sympathies?

Schemes of the Enemy.—A day or two since, the following dialogue took place.

"Are you going to support the Union ticket?"

"Well, I am thinking about it."

"The d—l, you must not vote for it—vote for Miller."

"Can't do that!"

"Vote for Wait!"

"Can't do that!"

"Will you vote for a new candidate, if we get up one?"

"Can't do that!"

"Why?"

"Because, if you get up another ticket the only design will be to defeat the Union ticket. I am not as soft as you may suppose."

A branch of the West End joint stock bank of London is about to be established in Victoria, which is regarded by the Colonist as indicating that within a brief period the colonies of Vancouver Island and British Columbia will have an abundance of English capital in their midst, and that the minds of the moneyed people of England are aroused to the importance of their gold fields. The Colonist predicts in glowing terms the future wealth, power and greatness of that city and country—all of which, we hope for their sake, may prove true.

Look at It!—Look over the secesh paper here. Not a note of admiration or approval of the brave and skillful feats of our generals and our armies in driving back and staying the waves of rebellion, do we find in the professed Union paper—the Advertiser. Can any man doubt the sympathies and desires of the editors of that paper and its friends?

Judge Hardy Suspended.—In the impeachment case of Judge Hardy, in the California Senate, all the specifications in the indictment found by the Assembly were dismissed except the fifteenth, which related to his treasonable expressions uttered on various occasions. The judgment was that he be suspended from office.

Burning Rebel Cotton.—Gov. Pettis of Mississippi has issued his proclamation, commanding that all cotton stored within five miles of the railroads and water courses of the State to be removed to a greater distance. If it is not done within a reasonable time after the publication of said proclamation the Governor announces that suitable steps will be taken to remove it at the expense of the owner. The planters of Florida are hauling their cotton into the open fields, away from the houses, to burn it if the enemy should approach.

The dwelling house of Floyd Williams, Polk county, was burned lately. Loss $600 or $700.

Siletz Reservation

NEAR CORVALLIS, May 18, 1862.

Editor Oregonian:

Being near to the Siletz Reservation the other day, and having a day or two of leisure I concluded to ride over and take a look at things. From Fort Hoskins to the Agency, a distance of twenty five miles, there is a passable trail for a mountainous country, although in places it is extremely bad. This selection for a Reservation was a most happy one, embracing several fine, large prairies, on the Siletz river, six miles above tide water, with plenty of fish, and surrounded by lofty mountains, in which is plenty of game and berries, and twenty five miles from the nearest settlement. The soil is of the finest quality, being a deep pliable loam, and produces most of the cereals and vegetables of the country in the greatest profusion, and I think will produce most of the fruits of the country equally well. I observed quite a degree of advancement and improvement in the Indians since I was there three years ago. Most of them now have quite comfortable cabins, and good large fields fenced in, in which I observed some of them plowing, some harrowing, others sowing oats, and the squaws planting potatoes or hoeing vegetables. All appeared contented and happy, endeavoring to get their crops in before taking the big hunt in the mountains, which comes off about the 20th of May.

B R Biddle, Esq, the gentlemanly and enterprising Agent, very politely gave me much information about the different tribes located here. He appears perfectly posted in all the minutia of his post. He informed me that there are about two thousand Indians on the Reservation, and that some tribes are nearly self supporting already. I noticed with pleasure several ingenious enterprises gotten up by the present Agent for the convenience and comfort of the Indians, which have had a most happy effect. The Indians are very observing, and if they notice anything intended apparently for their comfort it encourages them, and has a good effect—costing the Government almost nothing. There is nothing that has a better effect upon the character of the Indian than every day examples of order, cleanliness and refinement. And in this connection, no one who has a proper regard for the welfare of the poor savage, can too highly esteem the heroism of Mrs Biddle in leaving the comforts of a refined and happy fireside to dwell for a time amongst the rude savages, twenty five miles from the nearest white woman. Her presence among them will have a lasting impression upon their habits. They invariably speak of her as of a superior being, and with the utmost reverence. All honor to noble woman who leaves the pleasures of refined society to dwell amongst the lowly of earth—cultivating sympathy with all human kind, by cherishing forbearance towards the follies and foibles of an inferior race, and feeding day by day on that love to God and man which lifts us from the brute and makes us akin to angels.

Resp'y, PHILIP RITZ

From the Upper Columbia and the Mines

We clip the following items from the Mountaineer:

The Columbia had receded four feet, and merchants were moving back to their stores.

At John Days river, on the 19th, a Frenchman by the name of Louis Sonneuf, accidentally shot himself. He had placed his gun (a double barrelled fowling piece) in the brush and took hold of it by the muzzle. Both barrels were discharged and entered the right breast, causing instant death. Deceased was a native of Bretagne, in France, but has for several years past resided at Coltersville, Mariposa county, Cal. The deceased was from 36 to 40 years of age.

Colville.—Mr Bloch, of the firm of Bloch, Miller & Co, has just returned from Colville, bringing with him over $10,000 in dust.—From Mr B. we learn that the miners on the Spokane are taking out from $10 to $20 per day to the hand. On the Pend d'Oreille but little was doing, the water being too high to admit of working to advantage. A large number of Chinamen, from British Columbia were at work on the Columbia. They were doing well—taking out from $6 to $8 per day to the hand. The "Johns" regards these mines with great favor, and it is expected that thousands of their countrymen will find their way to that locality. A number of the settlers in the valley had left for Salmon.

Accident.—The ferry boat on the Snake river, near Lewiston, whilst ferrying across a wagon loaded with merchandise, foundered and all the goods were lost. This happened one day last week. The animals swam ashore and the wagon floated down as far as Wallula, where it was recovered.

All the advices from the mines go to show that it is yet too early for mining operations.

From Salmon.—A party of eight men came down from Salmon by Monday's boat. They had with them two hundred pounds in dust, all of which they had dug out in the course of last fall and winter. They report that the snow is too deep in the mines to admit of working to advantage, and they have come out for the purpose of having a "good time." They stopped over night at the Five Mile House, where they freely exhibited their treasure. The whole party will return as soon as the season will admit of mining operations.

Boilers for the Water Works.—The S. F. Herald says that Coffey & Risdon, boiler makers, of that city, are building a boiler thirty two inches in diameter, twelve feet in length, with thirty two and a half inch tubes, for the water works of Leonard & Green, of this city.

Line of Steamers between San Francisco and Shanghae.—The San Francisco Bulletin of the 10th in speaking of the advantages to be derived by the establishment of a regular line of steamers from that city to Shanghae in China, says:

By private correspondence received per Phantom from Hongkong, China, we obtain good proof of the real advantage to be obtained by establishing a line of steamers between San Francisco and Shanghae. The correspondence is as follows: Hongkong, March 21st.—The Reconnoissance arrived on the 20th inst from San Francisco, bringing dates from the Atlantic States to February 5th. Our latest advices per mail via Suez were to the 20th of January. In future we shall depend on vessels from your port for latest home news. By the last steamer from Shanghae we were advised of the organization of a Steam Navigation Co on the Yangtze Kiang, with a capital of 1,100,000 taels, equal to about $1,500,000. The steamers run up the river about 800 miles to Hankow, and as the Yang-tze is the Mississippi of China, it were well for us to establish a line of steamers and telegraph that will take news from New York to the New Orleans and St Louis of China as rapidly as the mails were carried twenty years ago to the corresponding ports on the Mississippi. The advantages will be to the merchants of the Atlantic States, an increased rapidity of communicating intelligence from New York [the grand commercial centre of the United States] to Shanghae, at present the most important commercial port in China. To California the advantages will be a regular and certain communication with China, an increased demand for our gold and silver, and the probable establishment of an efficient naval force in the North Pacific Ocean. Concerning the positive necessity of keeping several armed war steamers on this coast, it is scarcely necessary to speak, as it is sufficiently evident to any one who knows California and has her interests at heart.

Frightful Destruction by Earthquakes.—In the Dutch territories on the west coast of Sumatra and on the islands lying off it, earthquakes of excessive strength took place in February and March, accompanied by violent motions in the sea, the waters retiring to a great distance and then rushing back with frightful force and sweeping everything before them. Great destruction was everywhere caused and many lives were lost. In the islands however, the effect of these terrible natural phenomena were most marked. On the island of Nias a military post was completely swept away by the sea, and several of the garrison destroyed. A gunboat lying in the bay was torn from her anchors and thrown high upon the shore. On the island Simo, almost the whole of the houses were destroyed, and out of a population of about 1100 nearly 800 perished.

A fearful eruption of the volcano on the island of Makian, about thirty five English miles from Ternate, had caused the loss of many hundreds of lives and destroyed the whole vegetation. This took place on the 30th December, and a correspondent of the Handelsblad reports that it was so dark at noon that it exactly resembled night. The ashes fell about Ternate from six to eight inches thick. The scene must have been awfully magnificent and the result heart rending. The last eruption there was in 1783 or 1784.

Plot Against the President's Life.—For a long time it was believed that an Italian Barber of Baltimore was the Orsini who undertook to slay President Lincoln on his journey to the capital in February, 1861, and it is possible he was one of the plotters; but it has come out on a recent trial of a man named Byrne in Richmond that he was the captain of the band of ruffians that was to take the life of Mr Lincoln. This Byrne used to be a notorious gambler in Baltimore and emigrated to Richmond shortly after the 19th of April, of bloody memory. He was recently arrested in Jeff Davis' capital on a charge of keeping a gambling house, and of disloyalty to the chief traitor's pretended government. Wigfall testified to Byrne's loyalty to the rebel cause, and gave in evidence that Byrne was the captain of the gang who were to kill Mr Lincoln, and upon this evidence it appears, he was let go. Of course to be guilty of such an intended crime, is a mantle large enough to cover up all other sins against society and the Divine law. So Wigfall has revealed the Baltimore Orsini at last.

Sepoy Outrages.—It is well to put on the record facts which show the real nature of the "chivalry," with which the national forces are contending. The mutilation of the dead is occasionally practiced by the untutored savages in our western wilderness, and the heathenish Sepoys of India are credited with similar exhibitions of brutality. But cutting off the heads of slain men in honorable warfare in order to obtain the skulls for drinking cups, and taking the bones as material for making personal ornaments, are acts peculiar to Southern "chivalry" and the New Zealand cannibals. The Congressional Committee of the Conduct of the War have obtained ample evidence that these and other outrages upon the dead were perpetrated by the rebels after the battle of Manassas. After such revelation can anybody doubt the necessity of putting an end to the kind of "civilization" which has converted a portion of our countrymen into savages?—Sacramento Union.

What Cumberland Gap is.—A correspondent of the Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer writes from Cumberland Gap of a recent date as follows:

Were I permitted, I might tell you all about this celebrated Gap, its defences, and our strength; but you can—so can our friends—perceive that I am where I must not talk, but think—that the scratch of a pen might betray hundreds of lives—but I may tell your readers this, do not be alarmed. The Gap is not, as many suppose, an opening between two large mountains, but simply a road over a mountain, and this road is called a gap—a place where wagons travel over towards the valleys on each side. This Cumberland Gap is the main stock road from Kentucky, Virginia and Tennessee, and over this we get most of our Kentucky horses and hogs, and it is called by some a turnpike, for about 20 miles from here is a toll-gate, where all persons pay for the privilege of travel on a turnpike, not of plank or earth, but rocks—sharp-pointed rocks, and hence I conclude every blacksmith can make a fortune in five years shoeing horses in this country.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN [illegible] Franklin Book Store, opp [illegible]

COUNCIL.—Common Council met last night—all the members present.

A petition to establish a uniform grade on Front street between Washington and Alder, was referred to committee on streets and public property.

The following bills were ordered paid: Seymour & Joynt $[illegible]; Porter & Carson $650; H L Pittock $[illegible]; H S Jacobs $13; Portland Gas Company, $[illegible]78.

An ordinance to prevent butchering or committing other nuisances within the city limits, was read a third time and passed.

Mr. Holmes, from special committee to whom was referred the petition of Sharpser Bros., night auctioneers, for a reduction of license, reported by an ordinance in favor of petitioner, reducing the license from $600 to $300. Laid over under the rules.

A resolution to discontinue the lighting of the streets with gas after the [illegible]th inst., was adopted.

H. Boyd was elected City Assessor in place of Rob't J Ladd, who failed to qualify.

THAT TICKET.—The ticket advertised in another column states that a meeting of independent Union citizens had been held at the theatre yesterday afternoon. If such is the case, but very few of our Union men were aware of the fact.

HIGHER.—In consequence of the detention of drays laden with merchandise for the [illegible] boats, the city draymen have raised the price of freight to two dollars per ton. See advertisement.

SAILED.—The steamer Sierra Nevada sailed for San Francisco via Victoria, yesterday morning at ten o'clock.

FALL FALLING.—The Wallamette has fallen [illegible] inches from the late high water [illegible].

ASSAY OFFICE.—Messrs F W Tracy & [illegible] King have opened an assay office in this city, in the building occupied by Wells Fargo & Co. See advertisement.

HORSE STOLEN.—Some thief stole a horse from Mr. J. A. Slavins, while he was at the [illegible] speaking night before last. The horse was tied on the corner of Front and Yamhill [illegible].

The following is aunt Betty's description of a milkman: "He is the meanest man in the [illegible]. He skims his milk on the top, and then he turns it over and skims the bottom, and then he turns it up and skims the sides; then he divides it into ten parts, carefully skimming each part, and then he waters it."

[illegible] of the Mountaineer, a Delegate to [illegible] convention, says that "all the nominees were satisfactory to secessionists."

Public Speaking.

[illegible] Candidates for the Legislature in this County [illegible] the Union candidates for the different County offices will address the people of Multnomah County at the following times and places:

[illegible] Precinct, Tuesday, May 27th, at 10 A. M. at [illegible] voting.

The Dog's Dream.

What are your dreams, my poor old dog,
As by the blazing hearth you lie,
With frisking tail and ears erect,
As if prepared your speed to try?
Are you at ease, the heath and fern,
By the wild mountain's side once more,
Or pranks you by the babbling rill,
As you were wont in days of yore?

If you can fancy back the scene
By mountain side and gushing rill
And dream of joys that centered there,
And think awhile I [illegible] them still
I see again the heather hills
Once more I see the bright forms shine
Through mossy turf and tangled brake
And trace the steps that passed with mine

And do you hear the well known voice
From distance hail you back again,
And still obedient to the call,
Do you come bounding o'er the plain?
Or do you look into the eyes
That you so well had learned to read?
Or do you lick the gentle hand
From which it was your wont to feed?

I, too, like you, in happy dreams
That silver voice again can hear,
Forgetful for a while that ne'er
Its sound my waking hours can cheer.
I look into the eyes once more
That beamed so much of love on me,
And feel the pressure of the hand
Then wake to know it cannot be

If aught your memory can retain
When it has passed of that sweet dream,
To you the fond illusion still
A bright reality may seem
Not so it is with me! I wake
And the deceptive joy is o'er,
I feel my loneliness, my loss,
My sad reality, the more

Individual Heroism.

With all the modern improvements in the engines of warfare, moral and physical courage must rank as the grand essential of success in battle. Regiments that cannot be daunted, though decimated, by the Minie rifle or the rifled cannon, and that move straight forward to their object regardless of the leaden hail that sweeps down their files, will conquer troops who are less firm and steady, though better supplied with the weapons of destruction. Profound combinations will not avail to accomplish an end, if the soldier should fail at the decisive point. The most artfully planned surprise may be defeated by the quick rally and resolute resistance of brave troops. Even individual instances of coolness and daring seem to be almost as effective in battle nowadays as when contests of empires were decided by a vast series of hand to hand struggles. The war we are waging will furnish us with examples sufficient to illustrate the varying fortunes of arms in modern days, the reach and efficiency of the latest improvements in the means of destruction, and the kind of training necessary to convert a gathering of armed men into an army which can be depended upon in every emergency. But the contest will also give abundant proof, in innumerable instances of individual daring and fortitude, that the present generation of Americans are worthy to keep and extend the noble heritage they derived from the heroes of the revolution and the bold pioneers of the wilderness. The roll of honor for this war received its first name from the fiery baptism of Sumpter. John Hart, of New York, there repeated the exploit of Sergeant Jasper, with which every American schoolboy was familiar—that of recovering and restoring the flag during the hottest fire of the enemy. In daring, even to temerity, the achievements of Harry Lee and his legion of troopers in the war of independence have been emulated by the bold light horse that charged through greatly superior forces at Fairfax and Springfield, and came off with the trophies of victory. The story of Putnam's testing the courage of an enemy and proving his own, by sitting upon a keg of powder to which a slow match was applied, has its counterpart in the daring conduct of John Davis, a seaman of our squadron in Albemarle Sound, who saved a vessel and crew from destruction by placing himself astride a keg of powder, until the danger of explosion had passed. The individual valor displayed at the battle of Pea Ridge, where hand to hand conflicts were numerous, and men surrounded by enemies extricated themselves by personal prowess, remind us of the battles of the Border, which figure so famously in the early history of the West.—There was a fine exhibition of generalship upon the National side in that terrible contest; but before that imposing order of battle was formed which rendered victory certain, indomitable courage alone saved the army from defeat and destruction.

And the days of martyrdom for principle have not yet declined into the gloom of selfishness and corruption. Look at the people of East Tennessee. That mountain region deserves the proud title of the Switzerland of America. Disarmed, plundered, persecuted, tempted with bribes, coaxed with plausible promises, apparently abandoned by the Government to which they had a right to turn for protection, those steadfast mountaineers kept their faith in the Union cause as inflexibly as the Albigenses held fast to the creed of their conscience, though hunted with fire and sword. Cast into loathsome dungeons, they declared their determination to rot there rather than denounce their allegiance. Confronted by the gallows, they defied their persecutors, and mounted the scaffold with Corneille's idea, if not his language, to console them—"It is the deed, not the punishment, that makes a criminal." They could serve their country in but two ways: by burning bridges and thus destroying the communications of the enemy, and by setting an example of martyrdom for principle which will be remembered and emulated by succeeding generations, and reflect unfading luster upon the American name.

It is such thick-coming instances of heroism as those we have noted which should give us assurance that our countrymen will prove equal to their mission. To them, more fittingly than to any other people in this age, may be applied the noble and often quoted words of Sir William Jones:

What constitutes a State?
Not high-raised battlement or labored mound,
Thick wall or moated gate;
Not cities proud with spires and turrets crowned;
Not bays and broad-armed ports,
Where, laughing at the storm, rich navies ride;
Not starred and spangled courts,
Where low-browed baseness wafts perfume to pride.
No:—Men, high-minded men,
With powers as far above dull brutes endued
In forest, brake, or den,
As beasts excel cold rocks and brambles rude,—
Men who their duties know,
But know their rights, and, knowing, dare maintain,
Prevent the long-aimed blow,
And crush the tyrant while they rend the chain:
These constitute a State.

Among the letters found by our soldiers in the rebel camp at Roanoke Island was one from a young lady in the South to her lover in the rebel army, in which she says: "I hope we shall meet each other again here, but if we do not, I hope we shall meet in heaven, where there will be no Yankees."

FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES
ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
—AND—
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order, should make a TIGHT LOCK-STITCH, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical & Surgical Institute,
SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by [illegible] years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of two of the sufferers from the pangs of disease who, having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, made known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. [illegible] imperiously demand their publicity and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunately [illegible] similarly [illegible] obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his [illegible] gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the restoration of his health. Having [illegible] the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of [illegible] passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duties imposed upon the ordinary vocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas, after a few weeks and in several instances months of their treatment, I found to my utter dismay that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming in their tortures, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I placed myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice my [illegible] ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges, have disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having [illegible] the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to end by [illegible] hand. With this view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my [illegible] offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will [illegible]

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have [illegible] last of your medicine and do not think I shall [illegible] more, as I feel very well except that I have not got my strength yet, but soon will with the [illegible]. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, [illegible] your institute, with my constitution, as I [illegible] entirely, and never thought you would be able to [illegible] perfectly, but thought you might be able to do [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] nerves, so that I would not get excited and [illegible] rything. Now that you know what I expected, [illegible] judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery [illegible] symptoms, and the removal of those sores and [illegible] my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] purge of those emissions, which you said were [illegible] cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your [illegible] think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the news[illegible]. I remain gratefully yours, THOMAS [illegible]

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which [illegible] recommendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but [illegible] humanity also. About two years ago, I, [illegible], from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible], which, owing to my inability to meet the [illegible] quent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] agement which I met with on attempting it, soon [illegible] such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of [illegible] physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest [illegible] and although insensible to the agonies, I yet [illegible] miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those [illegible] would render assistance or shelter me from danger as [illegible] tures who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible] While in this state and having, previous to my [illegible] tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, [illegible] upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances and of my inability to reward him for his services; [illegible] of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and [illegible] the blessing of God I was once more restored to [illegible] health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I [illegible] present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I [illegible] due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case [illegible] order that those in need of medical advice may find [illegible] cian in whom every confidence can be placed.
